2) At a meeting of the Rumanian "ational Committee of June 24, 1949, General Radescu read a statement in which he said that he received a monthly financial subsidy from Malaxa beginning from March 1948. He did not state the amount but it was believed to be between $4000.00 and $6000.00 per month. Radescu gave a general outline of the alleged use he had made of those sums, but did not give any figures. Nor did he name the individual persons to which he had himself paid sums out of money received from Malaxa. Radescu admitted that his own journeys to Europe and his newspapers had been supported by Malaxa. Several members of the Committee could testify on this.
